

Programme of the XIII International Conference of Young Scholars “Crucial Problems of International Relations through the Eyes of Young Scholars”

University of Economics, Prague

28 May 2009

Konrad
Adenauer
Stiftung

8:30-9:30 Registration and breakfast

- Participants staying at Jarov dormitory are asked to register as early as possible so that they can manage to have breakfast before the start of the conference. Registration will take place in front of the room 112 of the Rajska building (RB) and breakfast in the room.
- Participants who will not need or want breakfast (e.g. they are from Prague or simply stay at a different place and want to have breakfast there) can register at any time between 8:30-9:30. Later registration is possible only in the common room RB 112.
- Participants who required accommodation only for the first night (i.e. 28/29 May) are asked to pack and check out in the morning before the start of the conference. Take your luggage to the university campus, we will provide you with a storage room upon your registration.

9:30-10:15 Opening of the conference (room RB 209)

Speakers:

Dana Zdražilová, Dean, Faculty of International Relations, UEP

Václav Kašpar, Vice-Dean, Faculty of International Relations, UEP (tbc.)

Tomislav Delinić, Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung, Prague

Zuzana Lehmannová, President of the Czech UNA and Head of the Jan Masaryk Centre of International Studies, UEP

Programme of the Conference – Overview

Time/Room	RB 104	RB 105	RB 106	RB 107
8:30-9:30	Registration and breakfast (RB 112)
9:30-10:15	Opening of the conference (RB 209)
10:15-11:30	Enlargement of the EU: The chances of South-Eastern Europe I	Global economic interdependence: Is it possible to avoid another economic crisis tsunami?	Global threats of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons	China and India as new global powers I
11:30-11:45	Coffee break (RB 112)
11:45-13:15	Enlargement of the EU: The chances of South-Eastern Europe II	Traditional principles in international relations: Still general rules?	Women and international relations	China and India as new global powers II
13:15-14:30	Lunch (University canteen)
14:30-16:00	Quo Vadis European Union – Can anyone stop the integration process? I	Unity or ambivalence in contemporary world? I	Democratization and Islamic countries I	China and India as new global powers III
16:00-16:15	Coffee break (RB 112)
16:15-18:00	Quo Vadis European Union – Can anyone stop the integration process? II	Unity or ambivalence in contemporary world? II	Democratization and Islamic countries II	Failed/rogue states and global terrorism
18:15-21:00	Glass of wine (NB 243)
Version	18.5.2009

Programme of the Conference – Details

10:15-11:30 Panel session I

Four panels will be held simultaneously:

Surname            First name    Title of paper

Panel I

Room: RB 104    Chair: doc. Ing. Ingeborg Němcová, CSc., UEP

Enlargement of the EU: The chances of South-Eastern Europe I

Bučo	Peter	The EU Sustainable Development Strategy - Statistical Analysis Sustainable Development and the Provision of EU Subsidies for Rural Development: The Case of Bulgaria
Dobrevá	Julia	Market-Based Action Guidelines to Retain Profitability of Middle-Sized Companies within the EU (or What to Learn from Eastward Expansion in the EU)
Kögler	Peter

Panel II

Room: RB 105    Chair: Ing. Martina Jeníčková, UEP

Global economic interdependence: Is it possible to avoid another economic crisis tsunami?

Švihlíková	Iлона	The Role of Dollar in the Global Economy Lagos Is not Lehman – The Differentiated Impact of the Financial Crisis on Emerging Markets and Developing Countries
Brand	Alexander	Regulation of Financial Markets - A Way to Avoid Another Economic Crisis?
Cupalová	Marcela

Panel III

Room: RB 106    Chair: Ing. Radim Sršeň, UEP

Global threats of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons

Fireš	Adam	Terrorism and Nuclear, Chemical and Biological Weapons as a Global Threat
Čubrík	Michal	Prospects of Nuclear Disarmament
Štefančíková	Michaela	Nuclear Security: Initiatives and Burdens

Panel IV

Room: RB 107    Chair: Ing. Zuzana Zelenická, UEP

China and India as new global powers I

Fertal'ová	Mária	Economic Dimension of Chinese Regional Presence
Tycholiz	Wojciech	China's 'Go-out Strategy' and Its Consequences for Africa Asian Giants in Africa: How Different Is Business Modus Operandi of "Chinese Dragon"
Kopiński	Dominik	and "Indian Elephant" and What It Means to African Countries?

11:30-11:45 Coffee break (room RB 112)

11:45-13:15 Panel session II

Four panels will be held simultaneously:

Surname            First name    Title of paper

Panel I

Room: RB 104    Chair: doc. Ing. Ingeborg Němcová, CSc., UEP

Enlargement of the EU: The chances of South-Eastern Europe II

Alaman Zengin	Sibel	The Mediterranean Policy of the European Union: A Capabilities-Expectations Gap Analysis
Lame	Vladimir	The Changing Role of the EU in the Balkans, Dilemmas of Further Integration
Milori	Dhurata	Albania - EU
Smetanková	Daša	The Cooperation by the EU-Access between Slovakia and Hungary (The Chance for the South-East Enlargement)

Panel II

Room: RB 105    Chair: Ing. Jan Martin Rolenc, UEP

Traditional principles in international relations: Still general rules?

Fedyna	Sofiya	Transformations of General Approach to International Relations: New Challenges and New Values
Polus	Andrzej	The Very Meaning of Norms and Patterns of Behaviors in IR. Epistemological and Methodological Consequences of Interparadigm Debates in the Post-Cold War Period
Vaščenkaitė	Galina	What's the Use of Making Adversaries Uncertain?
Truncová	Hana	NGOs and International Relations

Panel III

Room: RB 106    Chair: Ing. Mgr. Štěpánka Zemanová, Ph.D., UEP

Women and international relations

Osztrovszki	Lilla	Women, Peace and Security
Movchan	Anastasiya	Women's Potential in Policy and Decision-Making in Ukraine
Shchegortsova	Viktoriya	Parity of the Men and Women in Organs of State Governing the Ukraine - A Main Condition to Democracies

Panel IV

Room: RB 107    Chair: Ing. Ilona Švihlíková, Ph.D., UEP

China and India as new global powers II

Kotková	Martina	Possibilities for FDI in China and India
Szostak (Zechowska)	Jaroslav (Sylwia W.)	Together or Apart: A Shift in India's and China's Energy Policies in the 21st Century
Ivanová	Pavčina	Impact of the Economic Growth of China on Unemployment
Malchar- Michalska	Dominika	Contemporary Transformations of Agricultural Policy (Case of China)

13:15-14:30 Lunch (University canteen)

!!! A Note to the Lunch

The little card with your name and a stamp entitles you to take a free lunch at the University canteen.

Please, note that a lunch = soup + second course + tea – you have to pay (in CZK) for anything else (e.g. salads, chocolate bars, water, coke) purchased at the canteen.

Soup: Beef bouillon with vegetables

Second course (you choose one):

1. Beef on pepper, dumplings
2. Meat croquettes, spinach pasta
3. Fried salami, potato purée
4. Mixed vegetables, egg, boiled potatoes
5. Soya (“robi”) on curry, stewed rice
6. Vegetable plate with salmon nuggets

Tea: Black tea

14:30-16:00 Panel session III

Four panels will be held simultaneously:

Surname            First name    Title of paper

Panel I

Room: RB 104    Chair: Ing. Zuzana Zelenická, UEP

Quo Vadis European Union – Can anyone stop the integration process? I

Faturová	Marie	France, the Czech Republic and Sweden – A Troika of Partnership or Rivalries?
Berk	Istemi	The Chessboard: Turkey as the Bridging Shah
Maceják	Štefan	Solving the Problems of EU Democratic Deficit after the Adoption of Lisbon Treaty

Panel II

Room: RB 105    Chair: Ing. Martina Jeníčková, UEP

Unity or ambivalence in contemporary world? I

Ščepán	Michal	The Place of Development Aid in Foreign Policy
Michalski	Bartosz	The Impact of Competition Law and Policy from the Perspective of Developing Countries – Clear and Obvious?
Jeničková	Martina	Unity in Latin America in the New Millenium?
Koti	Reka A.	Unity or Ambivalence in the Drug Policy Principles and Strategies of the Contemporary Occidental World?

Panel III

Room: RB 106    Chair: Ing. Radim Sršeň, UEP

Democratization and Islamic countries I

Shabarbayeva	Assemgul	The Problems of Democratization in Pakistan
Šuplata	Milan	2009 Presidential Elections in Iran
Levent	Neyse	Government as a Religion: Observations from the Bridge Called Turkey
Ůnal	Didem	Discussing Women Vis-a-Vis Modernization and Religion: The Turkish Case

Panel IV

Room: RB 107    Chair: JUDr. Zdeněk Matějka, UEP

China and India as new global powers III

Cheng	Yu Chin	The True Meaning of China's Military Strategy
Knotková	Vladimíra	China and North Korea: Ambiguous Partners
Zajaczkowski	Jakub	India: Emerging Power in the 21st Century
Upadhyay	Dinoj Kumar	India as a Global Power: Achievements, Challenges, and Opportunities

16:00-16:15 Coffee break (in room RB 112)

16:15-18:00 Panel session IV

Surname      First name      Title of paper

Panel I

Room: RB 104      Chair: Yu-Chin Cheng, Anglo-American University in Prague

Quo Vadis European Union – Can anyone stop the integration process? II

Kovacovska	Lenka	The Access of Business Interests to EU Institutions: Mitigation Democratic Deficit or Élite Monopolization?
Dybizbanska	Agnieszka	The Process of European Monetary Integration: Euro as a Positive Impetus in the Euro Area Economy
Fodorová	Veronika	Cultural Diversity as a Challenge for Future European Integration
Rabohchiyska	Marieta	The "Failures" that Keep the European Union Going on
Sklenková	Veronika	Differentiation as Possible Means of Further European Integration

Panel II

Room: RB 105      Chair: Ing. Adam Fireš, UEP

Unity or ambivalence in contemporary world? II

Sharma (Pratap)	Sheetal (Kishan)	Complementary or Contradictory: Configuring and Analyzing Socio-Cultural Identities in the Age of Globalization
Baran	Jaroslav	Unity and Division in Contemporary World: The Dividing Lines of the World from a Different Point of View
Rohrbacher	Tomáš	Globalization and Anti-Globalization Tendencies
Brand	Alexander	Beyond Obamania – Change in U.S. Foreign Policy and the Consequences for German-American Relations
Grančay	Martin	International Civil Aviation - All Together or All Against All?
Tolkacheva	Liubov	Negative Consequences of Globalization towards Selected Country Indonesia

Panel III

Room: RB 106      Chair: Ing. Jan Martin Rolenc, UEP

Democratization and Islamic countries II

Zhunussova	Bota	Democratization and Islamic Countries
Naser	Safwan	Democratizing Islamic Countries - Who, How and Why?
Jahangir	Sajid	An Attempt to Build a Correlation between Islam and Democracy and the Impact of Islamic Political Activism on Democratization in Muslim Countries
Šrámek	Ondřej	Individual Rights in Modern Islamic Political Thought: Who Has the Right to Interpret Qur'an?
Szulc	Karol	Sides of Middle Eastern Conflict and Social Perception of the Clash

Panel IV

Room: RB 107      Chair: Ing. Vladimír Kváča, Ph.D., UEP

Failed/rogue states and global terrorism

Dolinec	Vladimír	Perception of the Terrorist Threat in the 21st Century
Chang	Sun Young	Iran, a Rising Player in the Global Terrorism
Nowakowska-Kielbasa	Marta	Game the United States Play over Afghanistan
Czernichowski	Konrad	Roots of Piracy in Somalia
Němec	Jan	Guinea-Bissau: Failed State on the EU Agenda

18:15 Glass of wine (in the Assembly hall of the Faculty of International Relations, room NB 243), official end of the programme

Map of the University Campus

